Notify Family, Friends & Colleagues

Getting the word out about your loved one's passing is often one of the most difficult tasks. Therefore, we encourage you to make a list of those people that need to be contacted, including family, close friends, employer or business colleagues.

Next, we encourage you to ask a family member or close friend to make these phone calls and/or send these e-mail messages for you. You have so much to accomplish after the death occurs and family members and friends are eager to help. Notification calls are a task that can be easily delegated to someone who really wants to help you.
