

DISCLAIMERS

- There is no evidence that any casket with a sealing device will preserve human remains.
- Except in certain special cases, embalming is not required by law. However, embalming may be necessary if you select certain funeral arrangements, such as a funeral with viewing. If embalming is not desired, you have the right to choose an arrangement that does not require you to pay for it, such as direct cremation or immediate burial.
- Prior to drafting any contract for goods or services, the responsible party or the decedent's survivor who is handling the funeral arrangements is entitled to receive a copy of any preneed agreement in the possession of the funeral establishment that has been signed and paid for, in full or in part, by or on behalf of the decedent.
- Allen Mortuary makes no warranties or representations concerning the products sold herein. The only warranties, expressed or implied, granted in connection with the products sold with the funeral services, are the express written warranties, if any, extended by the manufacturers thereof. Allen Mortuary hereby expressly disclaims all warranties, expressed or implied, related to all such products including, but not limited to, the implied warranties of merchantabilities and fitness for a particular purpose.

INTRODUCTION

Allen Mortuary is a family-owned funeral home founded by the late William E. Allen in 1952. Our mission is to expertly and professionally serve families with compassion, dignity and respect while upholding our core values of excellence, integrity and affordability.

In this pamphlet you will find information about the services and merchandise we offer. Because we recognize this is a difficult time for you, we have developed funeral service packages to simplify your selection process. Your choices range from a traditional funeral and burial to direct cremation, depending on your family's or loved one's wishes.

Our staff is available 7 days a week to answer any questions you may have regarding the information on this general price list. Once you have finalized your decisions, we will provide a detailed Statement of Funeral Goods and Services. This statement will detail and itemize the costs for the services and merchandise you have selected.

It is our goal to continue an Allen Mortuary tradition of exceeding the expectations of our families by providing the highest standard of professional, compassionate and affordable care to every family we serve. As an additional service we now offer, at no additional cost to you, placement of your obituary on our website. Friends and family can leave their condolences and remembrances on the website for you to read and treasure.
